

Affordable Bicycles and Supplies

How to Get Bikes for You or Your Kids:

Looking for an affordable bike or helmet? Need a tune-up on a budget? Lucky Bikes Re-Cyclery and The Bike Depot are both community bike shops that sell affordable bikes, helmets and accessories. Both shops also offer earn-a-bike programs. If either of these programs interests you, please call or check out their websites for more information.

Lucky Bikes Re-Cyclery

3150 W Jewell Avenue
Denver, CO 80219
720-454-9722
www.luckybikesrecyclery.org

The Bike Depot

2825 Fairfax Street
Denver, CO 80207
303-393-1963
www.thebikedepot.org

How to Get Bikes for Your School:

Some organizations offer free bikes for schools. For more information about how your school can apply for these opportunities, please contact the organizations directly.

Project ReCycle:

At the start of every school year, Project ReCycle selects two Title 1 schools to participate in the Dream Bike program. Visit www.projectrecycle.org or call 844-776-7329 to learn how to apply.

Trips for Kids:

Trips for Kids and Lucky Bikes Re-Cyclery partner to offer occasional school-wide Earn-a-Bike programs. For more information, visit www.tripsforkidsdenver.org or email T Satchwell directly at tsatchwell@tripsforkidsdenver.org.

WISH FOR WHEELS

Wish for Wheels:

Wish for Wheels donates new bikes and helmets to kids in low income Title 1 schools. Their program targets ages K-2nd grade. If your school wishes to be considered, apply at www.wishforwheels.org.